Premium, medicinal, and mineral water-a flowing deception without health benefits? High-ranking professor dismantles billion-dollar mineral water myth

In 2023, the total revenue of the mineral spring industry in Germany was 4.01 billion euros. However, Prof. Dr. Hans Hauner, a multi-award-winning nutritional scientist and director of a research group at the Technical University of Munich (TUM), sees no health benefit in mineral, premium, or so-called "medicinal waters"
