Sources for the article: "Fecal matter in Perrier, Vittel, Hépar and Nestlé Wa

Sources for the article: "Fecal matter in Perrier, Vittel, Hépar and Nestlé Waters - despite illegal disinfection measures." - "The 'health quality' of Nestlé mineral water is not guaranteed, according to a confidential ...

Sources for the article: "Fecal matter in Perrier, Vittel, Hépar and Nestlé Waters - despite illegal disinfection measures."

- "The 'health quality' of Nestlé mineral water is not guaranteed, according to a confidential note from Anses", Le Monde, 4.4.2024:

- "Hépar, Perrier, Vittel, Contrex: Health quality of Nestlé Group water 'not guaranteed' according to an expert report submitted to the government", France Info, 4.4.2024:

- Letter from foodwatch to the EU Commissioner for Health and Food Safety, Stella Kyriakides, 19 February 2024 (French):

- Response from the EU Commission to foodwatch:

- Directive 2009/54/EG on the extraction and marketing of natural mineral waters:

- "Nestlé admits to carrying out prohibited treatments on mineral water to maintain 'food safety'", Le Monde, 29.01.:

It's good.
to be truu.