here you will find a unique collection of information on the topic of water as well as the phenomenal effects of clean, toxin- and pollutant-free, bioavailable water for the human body, animals and plants. We provide you with both current reports, videos and news on the subject, as well as hidden, suppressed or "forgotten" knowledge. Authors, researchers and scientists have their say, whose significant insights for the lives of people are suppressed and censored by many media outlets. On this channel you will repeatedly find information that you might otherwise never learn about. We endeavor to provide you with sources for your own research. After oxygen, water is the most important life factor. Subscribe to this channel and find out, among other things, why so many beverages do not satisfy your body's water needs, the consequences of this and how you can use this knowledge for yourself your family and friends for a long, carefree and energetic life!
